

Old Republic Title's Updated Privacy Notice

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA), codified at 15 U.S.C. §§ 6801 et seq., requires title companies to develop and implement a written information security program that describes the procedures they employ to protect the security and confidentiality of their customers' nonpublic personal information. This includes the issuance of a Privacy Notice.

Old Republic Title has recently completed our regular review of our Notice. We continue to utilize the Federal Trade Commission model form. Two areas have been updated:

1. Our Affiliate section is reflective of our current Form 9
2. The States Notice section now refers to our online Privacy Notice – States Privacy Rights.

The updated form and instructions for the same can be found on StarsLink on the "ORT Forms and Endorsements" page.
